Kossuth Fund-Sailing of the City of Glasgow -- Kossuth Resolution in the Legislature-Arrests-Manslaughter, rrespondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

An affecting and simple incident occurred at The Bulletin office this morning, which indicates how strong a hold the love of, and sympathy for, the sufferings of struggling Hungary hath upon the working community. A drawman, in his ordinary working garb, entered the office of that paper and handed the editor $20 for the cause of Hungary, the hardearned contributions of himself and three fellow-draymen. Kossuth will esteem their gift as much, I trust, as a thousand dollar check from the millionaire. Philadelphia, Thursday, Jan. 8, 1852.

Mr. Kimkel's resolution, extending a welcome by our Legislature to Kossuth, passed both Houses yesterday, unanimously.

A number of persons have been arrested and held to bail to answer the charge of rioting during the Opposition Delegate election on Monday night. In the Court of Quarter Session to-day, Nicholas Harris, who was acquitted last night on the charge of murder, was directed to give bail of $3,000 to keep the peace and be of good behavior for the term of one year.

of marder, was directed to give ball of speech of the term of one year.

David and John Donnelly were arraigned for manslaughter, in setting fire to Bruner's Factory, near Fairmonnt, through carelessness, which caused the death of Edward Crosby, Agnes Morrow, and Ann Browning. The defendants occupied one part of the building as manufacturers of woolen goods. They plead not guilty. The case will be tried in a few days.

The case of Sarah Garber, charged with the mur, der of Florence Miller, a child of nine month's old, by compelling it to swallow plus, as it is alleged will be tried to morrow. The prisoner is a little girl of thirteen years of age, and at the time the offense charged was committed, was nurse to the child.

The father of the little girl was in Court, and stated that he was too poor to employ counsel. The Court assigned the duty of defending the prisoner to Benj. H. Brewster, Eq., who accepted the position. The prisoner is an intelligent and good-looking little girl, with nothing indicative of a bad heart in her countenance.

Correction of Tyssowski's Remarks.

Correction of Tyssowski's Remarks.

The telegraphic correspondence from Washington, Thursday, Jan. I., 1852, in our paper of Saturday, 3d inst., condences the particulars of the interview of Mr. John Tyssowski, late Dictator of Poland in 1846, with Governor Kossuth, so erroneously that after a more accurate report we deem it due to the truth and to the position of the distinguished gentleman concerned to amend said condensation in the following:

When Dr. Szpaczek introduced Mr. Tyssowski, Governor Kossuth, at the mere mention of his name, said: "I know you from Europe, by your history." A deep emotion apparently overwhelmed Mr. T and seemed to dictate his expressions.

In referring to the hopes entertained by the European peoples for the year 1852, he said that for man acquainted with the history of the past and with the political elements of the future, those hopes, although nourished since fifty years, far from appearing superstituous, appeared rather as the result of the highest effort of human foresight, and amongst said elements he ranked foremost the coming of Kossuth to these shores. Instead of regretting any unhappy feelings (history records none) between Hungary and Poland, Mr. T. dwelt with delight upon the friendship, uninterrupted during a thousand years, between the two nations, of which history has no similar influence on record, and which can only be rivited so much stronger by misfortunes, enemies and political tendencies common to both countries in more recent times. At least with reference to his own owns for his fatherland, he acknowledged the great truths proclaimed and defended by Kossuth, but he arknowledged also that if God permitted him to return to Poland, his experience of the practical working of republican institutions, which he, living unknown and unnoticed during five years, collected in the United States, appeared to him the greatest blessing produced by his exile.

Governor Kossuth, with his miraculous quickness, lost not a single word of these observations he answered, and his part is hardly legible.1
